

Listen-and-Answer Story for English Speaking Practice

Hello, and welcome to our English listening and speaking practice session! Today, we have an exciting story that we'll be sharing with you.

I will ask many questions while I am telling the story. This listen-and-answer story will help you to improve your English-speaking skills.

After each sentence, I'll ask a few questions. Pause the video if needed and answer the questions out loud. This helps improve your pronunciation and speaking skills.

If you can't say the answers your first time, be relaxed and just listen to the lesson. Next time, feel free to engage actively in the story by answering the questions. The more you participate, the better you'll become at speaking English.

Listen to the story repeatedly and enjoy. Most importantly, have fun! This story is designed to be enjoyable and educational.

Now, let's dive into our story.

Are you ready? Great! Let's get started!

There was a little boy named Timmy.

What was the boy's name?

The boy's name was Timmy.

Was Timmy a little girl?

No, Timmy was a little boy.

His name was Timmy.

Was his name Sarah?

No, his name wasn't Sarah, it was Timmy.

Timmy loved animals.

What did Timmy have a special love for?

Timmy had a special love for animals.

Did Timmy like cars more than animals?

No, he didn't. He didn't like cars more than animals.

He liked animals more than cars.

He had a dog named Buddy.

Did Timmy have a pet?

Yes, he did. Timmy had a pet.

What kind of pet?

A dog. He had a dog named Buddy.

What was the dog's name?

The dog's name was Buddy.

Did Timmy have a cat named Buddy?

No, didn't have a cat.

He had a dog named Buddy, not a cat.

Timmy and Buddy played together every day.

Who did Timmy spend time with every day?

Timmy spent time with his dog, Buddy, every day.

Did Timmy and Buddy only play together on weekends?

No, not on weekends only. They played together every day.

What did Timmy and Buddy do together?

They played together and had fun every day.

But one day, Buddy ran away.

Did Buddy stay with Timmy forever?

No. One day, Buddy ran away.

How did Timmy feel when Buddy ran away?

Timmy felt sad when Buddy ran away.

Did Buddy run towards Timmy?

No, Buddy ran away from Timmy.

Timmy was very sad.

How did Timmy feel when Buddy was gone?

Timmy was very sad.

Was Timmy happy when Buddy was with him?

Yes, he was happy when Buddy was with him.

Did Timmy smile when he was sad?

No, he didn't smile when he was sad.

He decided to look for Buddy.

What did Timmy choose to do when Buddy ran away?

He decided to look for Buddy.

Did he decide to look for ice cream?

No, he didn't. He decided to look for Buddy, not ice cream.

Did he give up on finding Buddy?

No, he didn't give up; he wanted to find Buddy.

Timmy asked his mom for help.

Who did Timmy turn to for assistance?

His mom. Timmy asked his mom for help.

Did he ask his teacher for help?

No, he didn't. He didn't ask his teacher for help.

Did he ask his mom for help?

Yes, he did. He asked his mom for help.

Did Timmy ask Buddy for help?

No, he asked his mom for help, not Buddy.

His mom said, "Let's make 'Lost Dog' flyers."

What did Timmy's mom suggest doing to find Buddy?

She suggested making 'Lost Dog' flyers.

Did Timmy's mom suggest making a cake?

No, she suggested making flyers, not a cake.

What did the flyers say?

The flyers said, "Lost Dog."

They made colorful flyers with Buddy's picture.

What did they put on the flyers?

They put Buddy's picture on the flyers.

Were the flyers plain or colorful?

They were colorful flyers.

Was there a cat's picture on the flyers?

No, there wasn't. There wasn't a cat's picture.

Whose picture was there on the flyers?

Buddy's picture was on the colorful flyers.

Timmy and his mom went around the neighborhood to hang up the flyers.

Where did they go with the flyers?

They went around the neighborhood.

Did they stay at home with the flyers?

No, they went out and hung up the flyers in the neighborhood.

Who helped Timmy hang up the flyers?

Timmy's mom helped him hang up the flyers.

Many people saw the flyers and promised to help find Buddy.

Did anyone see the flyers?

Yes, many people saw the flyers.

What did these people promise to do?

They promised to help find Buddy.

Did people ignore the flyers?

No, they didn't ignore them; they wanted to help.

Timmy felt a little better.

How did Timmy feel after people promised to help?

He felt a little better.

Did he still feel very sad?

He was still sad but felt a little better.

Was he completely happy?

No, he wasn't completely happy, but he felt a little better.

Now, he just had to wait and hope for Buddy to come back.

What did Timmy have to do next?

He had to wait and hope for Buddy to come back.

Did he have to search for Buddy anymore?

No, now he just had to wait and hope.

What was he waiting for?

He was waiting for Buddy to come back.

One day, while Timmy was at the park, he heard a bark.

Where was Timmy when he heard the bark?

Timmy was at the park.

What did he hear at the park?

He heard a bark.

Did he hear meowing?

No, he didn't. He didn't hear a meowing. He heard a bark.

He turned around and saw a dog that looked just like Buddy.

What did Timmy see when he turned around?

He saw a dog that looked just like Buddy.

Who did this new dog resemble?

This new dog resembled Buddy.

Did Timmy see a cat that looked like Buddy?

No, he saw a dog.

Timmy approached the dog and said, "Buddy, is that you?"

What did Timmy say to the dog?

Timmy said, "Buddy, is that you?"

What was the dog's name that Timmy mentioned?

Timmy mentioned the name Buddy.

Did the dog respond to Timmy?

You'll find out soon.

The dog wagged its tail and licked Timmy's hand.

How did the dog react to Timmy's words?

The dog wagged its tail and licked Timmy's hand.

Did the dog seem happy to see Timmy?

Yes, the dog seemed happy.

Did the dog bite Timmy's hand?

No, the dog licked Timmy's hand, it didn't bite.

Timmy knew it was Buddy.

Why did Timmy believe it was Buddy? Why did Timmy know that the dog was Buddy?

Timmy knew it was Buddy because of the dog's behavior.

Was Timmy sure it was Buddy?

Yes, he was sure it was Buddy.

Did Timmy think it was a different dog?

No, Timmy was certain it was Buddy.

He was so excited to find his lost friend.

How did Timmy feel when he found Buddy?

He was excited to find his lost friend.

Was Timmy sad anymore?

No, he wasn't sad; he was happy.

What did Timmy find at the park?

He found Buddy at the park.

Timmy hugged Buddy tightly and said, "I missed you so much."

What did Timmy do when he saw Buddy?

Timmy hugged Buddy tightly.

What did Timmy say to Buddy?

He said, "I missed you so much."

Did Timmy ignore Buddy?

No, he didn't ignore Buddy. He hugged and talked to Buddy.

Buddy was happy to be back with his friend Timmy.

How did Buddy feel about being with Timmy?

Buddy was happy to be back with his friend Timmy.

Was Buddy sad to be with Timmy?

No, Buddy was happy, not sad.

Did Buddy want to leave Timmy again?

No, he wanted to stay with Timmy.

Timmy and Buddy walked home together, and Timmy thanked all the people who helped him look for Buddy.

Who did Timmy walk home with?

Timmy walked home with Buddy.

What did Timmy do to show his gratitude?

He thanked all the people who helped him look for Buddy.

Did Timmy walk home alone?

No, Buddy was with him.

Timmy and Buddy were now the happiest pair in the neighborhood.

How did Timmy and Buddy feel now?

They were now the happiest pair in the neighborhood.

Were they sad anymore?

No, they were no longer sad.

Did they like being together?

Yes, they liked being together very much.

Timmy and Buddy spent every day together, playing and having fun.

What did Timmy and Buddy do every day?

They spent every day together, playing and having fun.

Did they enjoy their time together?

Yes, they enjoyed their time together very much.

One sunny day, Timmy and Buddy found a lost kitten in the park.

What did Timmy and Buddy find on one sunny day?

They found a lost kitten in the park.

Was it a lost puppy they found?

No, it wasn't a puppy. It was a lost kitten.

Where did they find it?

They found it in the park.

Timmy said, "We have to help the kitten find its family."

What did Timmy think they should do?

He thought they should help the kitten find its family.

Did Timmy ignore the kitten?

No, he wanted to help it.

Timmy and Buddy asked around, but no one knew where the kitten came from.

What did Timmy and Buddy do to find the kitten's family?

They asked around, but no one knew where the kitten came from.

Did they find the kitten's family easily?

No, they couldn't find the family right away.

Were they successful in finding the kitten's family?

You'll find out.

Timmy and Buddy decided to take care of the kitten until its family was found.

What did Timmy and Buddy decide to do for the kitten?

They decided to take care of the kitten.

Did they leave the kitten alone?

No, they took care of it.

Did the kitten stay with them?

Yes, it stayed with Timmy and Buddy.

Days turned into weeks, and the kitten became a part of their family.

Did the kitten leave them after a few days?

No, it didn't leave. The kitten stayed with them. It became a part of their family.

What happened to the kitten?

The kitten became a part of their family.

Timmy, Buddy, and the kitten lived happily ever after.

How did they live?

They lived happily ever after.

Did they live happily or sadly?

They lived happily.

Did their story have a good ending?

Yes, it had a good and happy ending.

Listen-and-answer method is very powerful for learning English the easy way and improving your speaking skills quickly.

You can visit our website englisheasypractice.com to get our course. Download our audio English stories, together with the PDF text of the lessons. And start speaking English with our fun stories now.

Keep practicing, keep speaking, and keep improving your English fluency. See you in the next lesson!