

Do you want to learn English vocabulary faster?

Want to have better listening comprehension and pronunciation?

And boost your speaking skills quickly?

Then, welcome to our new video to improve your English skills! In this video, we'll dive into a fun and interactive learning experience designed to improve your English-speaking skills.

Now we will have a 4-part exercise;

- Part 1 Listening Practice
- Part 2 Vocabulary
- Part 3 Listen and Answer Practice
- Part 4 Shadowing Practice

Now, are you ready to train your brain to speak English fluently? Let's get started!

Part One - English Listening Practice:

In the first part, you'll listen to a conversation between native English speakers. Try to focus on the meaning of the conversation when you listen to it. This will help you understand real-life conversations better.

To give someone the cold shoulder

Anna: Hey, Jake. Did you see Lisa today?

Jake: Hi, Anna. Yes, but she gave me the cold shoulder.

Anna: Really? That's not like her. What happened?

Jake: I don't know. I said hello, but she just walked away.

Anna: Did you do something to make her mad?

Jake: I don't think so. We were laughing together yesterday.

Anna: Maybe she's having a bad day. You should talk to her later.

Jake: Yeah, I will. I hope everything is okay.

Anna: I'm sure it is. Sometimes people just need some space.

Jake: You're right. I'll give her some time and then ask if she's alright.

Part Two - Learn Vocabulary:

Now, let's explore some new words together in our vocabulary section. I'll explain a few words and use them in example sentences to help you grasp their meaning easily.

Vocabulary

To give someone the cold shoulder: To ignore someone or treat them in an unfriendly way.

Example: When I tried to talk to him, he gave me the cold shoulder and walked away.

To make somebody mad: To do something that makes someone angry.

Example: She was careful not to make her friend mad by being late.

Space: Time or distance away from others to be alone.

Example Sentence: Sometimes people need space to think and relax.

Part Three - Listen and Answer Practice:

Time for some interactive practice! Listen carefully to the questions I ask about the conversation. Try to answer them out loud before I reveal the correct answers. This will boost your speaking and listening skills. Repeat this exercise every day until you can say the answers quickly and confidently.
